Notes from the Pastor

As you heard in the homily this weekend, it is Stewardship Renewal Weekend. This is the case not only for our parish, but for many parishes around the diocese and in many other dioceses as well. The idea of stewardship has been embraced by many Catholic parishes and diocese. Both our current as well as our former bishop are advocates of such a way of life. The idea behind stewardship, as you know, is a way of giving thanks to God for the many blessings he has bestowed upon us. He doesn't need our thanks, but in different places in Scripture, it seems he is gratified when we remember to give thanks. As many of you are parents, you do not need your children to show you gratitude for all that you have done for them, but it sure makes you proud and does your heart good, when they remember to give you a hug and say, "Thanks for all that you have done for me. I would not be the person I am today without your support." Our act of giving praise to God and assisting our fellow parishioners in doing so by sharing our talents and treasure with the parish is that same kind of statement to our God. It shows that we are not taking God's generosity to us for granted; His example has caused us to be a person who also gives in return.

Peace and Prayers, Fr. Kevin

A MESSAGE FROM BISHOP WEISENBURGER

My dear brothers & sisters, you have already responded with exceptional generosity for the local victims of the hail storm in WaKeeney, as well as the terrible devastation that followed from Hurricane Harvey in Texas. As the same time, I'm sure we have all been moved by the catastrophic damage that resulted from Hurricane Irma, which hit the Caribbean and the southeastern United States. Hurricane Irma has been devastating, especially to many in parts of Florida and St. Thomas in the Virgin Islands. Our brothers & sisters greatly need our help.

All dioceses in the U.S. will take up a collection for Hurricane Irma Relief on the weekend of October 1st. The funds collected will be used in the affected areas to support humanitarian aid, assistance with long-term efforts to restore communities after widespread destruction, and for the pastoral and reconstruction needs of the Church in these areas.

This collection comes on the heels of the prior two emergency collections. Please know that your sacrificial gift will be a blessing for those who are greatly in need.

May God bless you abundantly,
Bishop Edward J. Weisenburger
